JENNIFER E. WILLIS, United States Magistrate Judge:

O June 3, 2022, Plaintiff filed a letter requesting clarification of the summary judgment briefing schedule. Dkt. No. 792. For now, this Court will hold to the schedule set forth by Judge Nathan. Should modification be required, the Parties may seek such relief when that becomes clear. The Court will also refrain from scheduling a pre-motion conference until the Parties are ready to proceed with summary judgment.

Should the Parties have any discovery disputes requiring intervention from the Court, they are welcome to file letter motions describing the nature of the disagreement and requesting a conference to resolve any outstanding issues.

SO ORDERED.
